

UNIVERSITAS AIRLANGGA
KAMPUS C MUYOBEJO
SURABAYA

GUEST LECTURE

YEAR 2017 - 2019

Faculty of Nursing
Universitas Airlangga

Table of content

2019

Dr. Duangporn Piyakong from Naresuan University	4
Prof. Satomi Ogawa from JRCKICN	5
Prof. Miaofen-Yen and Assoc. Prof. Esther Chin-Lan Lin from National Cheng Kung University, Taiwan	6
Prof Lisa McKenna from La Trobe University, Australia	7
Prof Graeme Drummond Smith from University of Edinburgh	8
Prof. Hisaya Oda from Ritsumeikan University Japan	9

2018

Prof. Satomi Ogawa from JRCKICN, Japan	11
Dr. Raweewan Pilakiat from Naresuan University	12
Prof Eileen Savage from University of College Cork, Ireland	13
Prof Khatidjah from University of Malaya, Malaysia	14

2017

Dr. Wendy Abigail from Flinders University, Australia	16
Kaohsiung Medical University, Taiwan	17
Prof Ching Min Chen from National Cheng Kung University, Taiwan	18

2019

Guest Lecture by Dr. Duangporn Piyakong from Naresuan University

Naresuan University visited Faculty of Nursing Universitas Airlangga on February, 2019. There was 2 lecturer and 4 students from Naresuan University. Dr. Duangporn Piyakong is a lecture in Adult Nursing Departement in the Naresuan University. In their visit, Dr. Duangporn Piyakong delivered a guest lecture for doctoral student Faculty of Nursing Universitas Airlangga on 19 February 2019. She shared how to write dissertation properly. The discussion session was very interactive, the students actively asked and shared their experience while studying doctoral program in Universitas Airlangga.

Sharing idea between 2 or more countries was the important thing for nursing students to develop critical thinking and also update new issue in Adult Nursing area.

Guest Lecture by Prof. Satomi Ogawa from JRCKICN
“Disaster Management and Community Resilience” for doctoral students

Japanese Red Cross Kyushu International College of Nursing (JRCKICN) visited Faculty of Nursing Universitas Airlangga in the first week of March 2019. There were 2 students and 1 Professor who participated in the students and staff inbound of Faculty of Nursing Universitas Airlangga. Prof Satomi ogawa delivered a guest lecture with topic “Disaster Management and Community Resilience” for doctoral students. The discussion session was very interactive. The students very interested in experiences of managing the disaster in Japan.

Guest Lecture by Prof. Miaofen-Yen and Assoc. Prof. Esther Chin-Lan Lin from National Cheng Kung University, Taiwan

As a part of Inbound staff from National Cheng Kung University, Prof. Miaofen-Yen having a interesting sharing and discussion with master student of Faculty of Nursing Universitas Airlangga (5/4/2019). Integrating and writing the research proposal became the important issue for students. Furthermore, master students have to publish their research as a requirement for graduate.

The Next topic for guest lecture is delivered by Assoc. Prof Esther Chin-Lan Lin, who discussed about mental health and community nursing. She explained well how Taiwan developed a community for reaching good health status. She also shared her experiences when involved the community program.

Guest Lecture by Prof Lisa McKenna from La Trobe University, Australia

Prof Lisa McKenna visited Faculty of Nursing Universitas Airlangga as a part of Adjunct Professor Program. In her visit, she delivered a guest lecture for master students with the topic Leadership and Management in Nursing. It was a great session because Prof Lisa has many experiences about leadership in nursing also she already wrote books related to leadership in nursing. 87 Master students of Faculty of Nursing Universitas Airlangga joined her class.

Guest lecture by Prof Graeme Drummond Smith from University of Edinburgh

Professor Graeme Drummond Smith visited Faculty of Nursing Universitas Airlangga. In his visit, he has opportunity to meet and share with doctoral program about his experience becoming a editor of reputable journal indexed in the Scopus (Journal of Clinical Nursing). It was a great opportunity for doctoral program regarding writing a publication that explained by Prof Smith.

Guest Lecture by Prof. Hisaya Oda from Ritsumeikan University Japan

Professor Hisaya Oda from Ritsumeikan University, Japan visited Faculty of Nursing Universitas Airlangga. Prof. Hisaya Oda has experiences related to nursing migration also human resources. In his visit, he has opportunity to share with students about his research experience.

2018

Guest Lecture by Prof. Satomi Ogawa from JRCKICN, Japan

Japanese Red Cross Kyushu International College of Nursing (JRCKICN) visited Faculty of Nursing Universitas Airlangga. Prof Satomi Ogawa delivered a guest lecture with topic “Disaster Management and Community Resilience” for master students. The discussion session was very interactive. The students very interested in experiences of managing the disaster in Japan. Prof Ogawa also showed a simulation of disaster management when it happened in Japan.

Guest Lecture by Dr. Raweewan Pilakiat from Naresuan University

Naresuan University and Faculty of Nursing Universitas Airlangga have a routine agenda for staff exchange. In this opportunity, Naresuan University sent 1 lecture to visit Faculty of Nursing Universitas Airlangga. In her visit, Dr Raweewan Pilakiat delivered a guest lecture for master students. She shared about her experiences in clinical practice.

Guest lecture by Prof Eileen Savage from University of College Cork, Ireland

As one of the oldest public universities in the United Kingdom (UK) which won dozens of international recognition in the field of research and indexed publications, the University of College Cork Ireland has greatly helped this good intention. Surely the visit of the UCC Dean this time could have been used by FKp UNAIR to improve international reputation once again. In addition to the mentoring process, Prof. Eileen Savage, Dean of the UCC School of Nursing and Midwifery also shared her time and energy to give guest lectures on 6 April 2018 for master students, supervise research manuscripts, and mentors in developing management of nursing education institutions.

Guest Lecture by Prof Khatidjah from University of Malaya, Malaysia

On Monday, August 13, 2018, Mrs. Khatidjah Lim Abdullah PhD as Associate Professor of the Department of Nursing Sciences, Faculty of Medicine, University of Malaya, Malaysia, visited the Nursing Faculty of Airlangga University in Surabaya in the context of continued activities of the Adjunct Professor Program which had previously been held in July 2018. On this visit, Mrs. Khatidjah not only assisted in the Manuscript Consultation activities, but also discussed Research Collaboration with the FKp Research Unit Team, and the Doctoral Degree Sandwich Program with the Dean Leadership Unair Faculty of Nursing.

On this visit he also had the opportunity to give a guest lecture to Masters of Nursing Masters students on the topic "Leadership and Clinical Leadership", to Nursing Education students with the topic "Introducing Qualitative and Quantitative Research Methods" and to students of Nursing Doctoral study programs which just opened this year with the topic "PhD Journey: What Is It All About?". The students seemed very enthusiastic in participating in the Guest Lecture activity where several students asked critical and brilliant questions during the discussion process.

2017

Guest Lecture by Dr. Wendy Abigail from Flinders University, Australia

Master Program of Faculty of Nursing Universitas Airlangga Airlangga is committed to improving the quality of writing scientific publications. The ability to write good publications will increase opportunities to be published in reputable national or international journals. Meanwhile, the publication of accredited national journals or reputable international journals is a requirement for graduation of Nursing Masters Study Program students. Writing research results for scientific publications, especially publications in international journals requires special experience and skills. Therefore, knowledge and experience transfer from international journal writers with high publication experience is needed.

This underlies the guest lecture program with the topic Research Research with Dr. Wendy Abigail PhD, RN BN (Hons) from Finders University Australia. The guest lecture participants were students of the Nursing Master Study Program at the Faculty of Nursing, Univrsitas Airlangga. The students seemed very enthusiastic about following the material and discussion session which lasted for two hours. The guest lecture held on September 22, 2017 in the Florence Room is expected to be able to improve students' understanding and ability to publish their research results.

Guest Lecture from Kaohsiung Medical University, Taiwan

Friday (7/4/2017) at RK. Florence Nightingale UNAIR Faculty of Nursing welcomed guests from Kaohsiung Medical University in Taiwan. Ya-Ping, Yang RN. PhD as a speaker in a guest lecture with the title "Different research designs for dementia fields" and "Effectiveness of Aroma-massage on Alleviating Behavioral and Psychological Symptoms of Patients with Dementia" accompanied by his colleague 'Kai-Li'. Attending the occasion were Mrs. Tiyas Kusumaningrum, S.Kep.Ns., M.Kep as the Head of S1 Airlangga University FKp and Ms. Ika Nur Pratiwi, S.Kep.Ns., M.Kep as faculty ambassadors. The event was attended by S1 and S2 Nursing Faculty of Nursing students at Airlangga University to broaden their knowledge about research and knowledge.

Guest lecture by Prof Ching Min Chen from National Cheng Kung University, Taiwan
6-8 November 2017

Prof Ching Min Chen from National Cheng Kung University visited Faculty of Nursing Universitas Airlangga as a part of Visiting Professor Program. In her visit, she delivered a guest lecture for master students. It was a great session because Prof Chen has many experiences in the clinical practice in nursing.